	18-04-2002 Mr. Diwakar, moved this Court at 10.30A.M. today for taking up this writ petition, which is in the nature of public interest litigation for admission and orders. We have taken up the petition and heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and Dr. Shukla for respondents. The petitioners are the doctors and they have in this petition sought for directing the respondents to immediately issue suitable directions to all the District Collectors for ensuring the closure of all the schools (as vacation) in the State of Chhattisgarh with immediate effect and they may be directed to make suitable policy and issue guidelines to the government ensuring the fact that in future years also the schools must complete their session before the month of April and the summer vacation should be strictly following in the month of April, May & June and grant any other relief in the facts and circumstances of the case. The appropriate authority to consider and pass an order is the government. The petitioners have not approached the government by making representation for grant of appropriate relief.
